News From our Members

Got News about your business and would like to share it with other members?

Send your information via e-mail approximately two weeks before your special event and we will include it in the Weekly Update ("News from our Members" section), space permitting.

Due to limited space and a large volume of requests, items printed on the weekly update will be on a first-come, first-serve basis, will run for one week only (please no on-going articles), and final entries will be at the discretion of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce.

Articles submitted with events more than two weeks away may or may not be published, depending on date and sensitive materials from others.

Tustin Library is now open!

The new Tustin Library is now open to the public. The 32,000 sq. ft. building is located at 345 E. Main Street, next to the former library building which faces Centennial Way. The beautiful library features large glass windows opening onto patio facing Third Street, and it is more than double the size of the older building. Sharon Nicola is looking forward to seeing you all there!

Now for a holiday poem from I-5 Storage.....

Twas the Month before Christmas and all through the land,
People where shopping as fast as they can,
The presents where hidden all over the house,
In hope that the children wouldnt find out.
The children where noseey and trying to peek,
The parents were worried and could not sleep.
The Parents knew that they needed more space,
So they flew over to I-5 'cause they knew that was the place.
They knew thats where to get all their free wrapping,
This filled them with glee and got their toes tapping.
With their steal of a deal of 5 dollars in December,
They knew it would be a holiday to remember.
But I heard them yell as they drove into the night,
Happy Holidays to you, I-5 your all right!
